

Newsletter no. 6

This is the sixth issue of the newsletter of the Green Power Electronics project. Green PE is a 3-years project funded by the Interreg Baltic Sea Region Programme. Find more information below.

Final conference webpage online

Within reach of the end of the project, the project partners and stakeholders have met for the last time at the final conference in Sonderborg. Discover all information about the event on the newly set-up webpage.

Read more

Green PE brochure available

What are the main findings of the project and the three demonstration pilots? How can they impact the further development of green growth in the BSR? Find the answers in the Green PE brochure developed by the project partners.

Click here to download the brochure

Partners discuss project results

During the 6th joint project meeting the project partners drew their positive project conclusions. They discussed the project's impact on the advanced power electronics market and possible future collaboration activities among the project partners and the established network.

Read more

Green PE partners giving insights into their work

The Green PE video on YouTube enables you to take a look behind the scenes of the project's research and into the laboratories. Furthermore, the project leader and partners provide informative facts on their work and the project in general.

Read more

- 17 project partners: research institutions, companies and technology transfer organisations
- Duration from 2016 to 2019
- Budget: EUR 3.1 million
- European Regional Development Fund
- Interreg Baltic Sea Region Programme
- Led by University of Southern Denmark

Copyright © Green Power Electronics, All rights reserved.

Pictures: © tonefotografia-Fotolia, © Green PE

Do you want to unsubscribe?

Send an email to info@balticgreenpower.eu